

20. HEMP AND CBD OIL CODE

20.01.00 Title

This Code shall be known as the Hemp and CBD Oil Code.

20.01.100 Hemp, CBD and CBD Oil Products Legal on Reservation

As a result of Hemp being delisted as a schedule one controlled substance in the Federal Farm Bill, the Tribe authorizes the growing / production and sale of hemp and the production, use and selling of CBD oil products on Reservation.

20.01.150 Hemp Definition

Hemp is defined as an agricultural product of cannabis with less than 0.3% THC.

20.01.200 CBD Oil Definition

CBD Oil is a non-intoxicating cannabinoid found in cannabis and hemp with no more than 0.3% THC

20.01.250 Regulatory Authority

The Tribe places the control and regulation of hemp and cbd oil under the Tribe's Marijuana Regulatory Commission.

20.01.300 Zoning Laws and Hemp Production

Hemp may be grown only in those areas designated for agricultural uses on the Reservation.

20.01.350 Zoning Laws and CBD Product production

CBD oil products shall only be produced in areas zoned commercial on the Reservation.

20.01.400 Limitation on Who May Grow Hemp

Hemp production shall be the exclusive right of the Tribe and its tribal members. No non-Chehalis tribal member or entity shall be permitted to grow Hemp on Reservation.

20.01.450 Acreage Limitations for Hemp Production on Lands Owned by the Tribe

Hemp fields on land owned by the Tribe shall not exceed 200 acres per field.

20.01.500 No Limitation on the size of acreage on individual tribal member trust land.

The amount of acreage which may be dedicated to the production of Hemp on individually owned trust lands within the Reservation shall not be limited by Ordinance.

20.01.550 Prohibition on Use of Tribal Members as a Straw Man

It shall be illegal for a non-qualifying person or entity under this Ordinance to grow and / or sell hemp produced on the Reservation.

20.01.600 Compliance with all Tribal and Federal Environmental laws

Hemp production shall comply with a tribal and federal environmental law, including without limitation, the Clean Water Act.

20.01.650 No Pollution of the Chehalis River, the Black River and their tributaries and the Ground Water of the Reservation

No production of Hemp shall be allowed to run off into the Chehalis River, the Black River and their tributaries or pollute the Ground Water on the Reservation.

20.01.700 Production of Hemp on Reservation Requires a Chehalis Business License.

Any person or entity which shall produce Hemp and / or sell Hemp on the Reservation shall have a valid and current Business License from the Tribe.

20.01.750 Production and / or Sale of CBD Oil Products on Reservation Requires a Chehalis Business License.

Any person or entity which shall produce CBD oil and / or sell CBD oil on the Reservation shall have a valid and current Business License from the Tribe.

20.01.800 Required Testing of Hemp and CBD Oil Products

All Hemp and CBD Oil products shall be subject to testing by a qualified lab in order to establish that such hemp and cbd oil products do not violate this Ordinance.

20.01.850 Definition of a Qualified Lab

A Qualified Lab pursuant to this Ordinance is a lab certified by the Tribe as qualified to be used for the purposes set forth herein.

20.01.900 Limitation on Who May Produce CBD Oil and / or CBD Oil Products

Only the Tribe may produce commercially CBD Oil and / or CBD Oil Products on the Chehalis Reservation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to the terms of this Ordinance, Chehalis tribal members may sell CBD Oil products on the Reservation.