

IS BUSINESS OWNERSHIP ON YOUR MIND?

We all know that the challenges associated with starting or growing a business in Indian Country can be overwhelming. But with the knowledge and skills gained by completing an Indianpreneurship® course, entrepreneurs are more confident and ready to embark upon a successful business venture.

Attend an upcoming: “Introduction to Indianpreneurship” workshop to learn if this program is right for you.

Tuesday, April 18th 5:30-7:30pm or Saturday, April, 22 12:00-2:00pm

CTLF (Loan Fund) Office, 420 Howanut Rd, Oakville WA 98568.

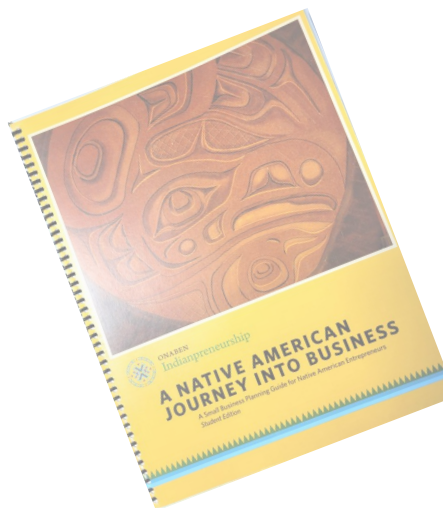

Zoom link available upon request

RSVP to Tamra Marlowe, tmarlowe@chehalistribe.org (360)709-1631

Our educational philosophy is inclusive — everyone who is willing to commit to the program is welcome.

We encourage everyone in the community with an interest in entrepreneurship to take the class.

Costs are covered by CTLF and WSMA

According to U.S. Census Bureau statistics, Native American-owned businesses contribute over $33 billion to the U.S. economy every year and employ over 200,000 people.

The number of tribal firms continues to grow as Native Americans see business ownership as a pathway out of poverty. ~
U.S. Department of the Interior, Indian Affairs

Funding provided by the Washington State Microenterprise Association (WSMA) thanks to a grant made by the Washington State Department of Commerce.

*Hosted by the Chehalis Tribal Loan Fund.
Presented by certified Indianpreneurship trainer,
Tamra Marlowe, MBA, MSML*