CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Chehalis Tribal Housing Authority (CTHA) is committed to ensuring fairness and impartiality in our housing admissions process. To help maintain transparency and prevent conflicts of interest, we require all applicants to disclose any relationships that could potentially create a conflict of interest. Please read the following carefully and disclose any conflicts of interest that apply to you or anyone in your household.

A conflict of interest exists when a person has a personal or financial interest that may interfere with their ability to make fair and impartial decisions or actions. In the context of housing admissions, conflicts of interest can arise when:

An applicant or a household member is related to, or has a close personal relationship with, a CTHA employee or board member, an applicant or a household member has a financial interest in a property or service that is connected to CTHA or the housing admissions process; an applicant or a household member has a direct or indirect financial interest in the outcome of the housing admissions decision.

Conflicts of interest dependent on the nature of the conflict may be posted in a common area for public comment.*

If any of the above situations apply to you or anyone in your household, please provide the following information:

Name of the person with the conflict of interest:
Relationship to the person with the conflict of interest (e.g. spouse, sibling, business partner):
Description of the conflict of interest (e.g. financial interest in a property):
Explanation of how the conflict of interest could potentially affect the fairness or impartiality of the housing admissions process:

By signing below, you confirm that all information provided is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge. You understand that failure to disclose a conflict of interest may result in disqualification from the housing admissions process.
