

Reminding All Native Artists!

The South Puget Intertribal Planning Agency (SPIPA) Entrepreneurial Program is excited to announce a Request for Proposal for a unique opportunity to showcase Native artistry! We are seeking a talented Native artist to create a digital image mural for the entry point of the SPIPA Entrepreneurial Professional Center in Olympia, WA.

This is your chance to share your vision and contribute to a space that uplifts the success and wellness of the intertribal community.

♦ What We're Looking For:

A digital image mural that represents the strength, resilience, and entrepreneurial spirit of the Confederated Tribes of the Chehalis Reservation, Nisqually Tribe, Shoalwater Bay Tribe, Skokomish Nation, and Squaxin Island Tribe.

Proven experience in digital artwork and mural design.
