

Ribbon Skirt Class by Native Women's Wellness Program

The ribbon skirt represents a symbol of womanhood. It is an identifying piece that connects you to the earth and Grandmother moon. More recently, the ribbon skirt has been used as a form of expression of womanhood and strength.

When: Saturday Feb 1st, 2025 & Sunday, Feb. 2nd, 2025

Time: 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Class is limited to 8 per day - Age 14 years & older

(Sign-up Only if you can stay all day, you must complete it in one day.

Ribbons will be limited to 2-3 colors on skirt, basic instruction class)

Patient Navigator will be there with information on women's annual exam, mammogram, colonoscopy screenings, HPV vaccines. Women are invited to come make a Ribbon Skirt * This is an Activity to get you to make a Pledge to get your Annual Exam or Mammogram or both. Questions, please ask Christina Hicks. (This is for those who haven't yet made a skirt.)

Who: Chehalis Tribal Community Women - NWWP program participants

Sign up with Christina Hicks, Community Wellness Manager at CTWC Phone: 360.709.1741 or Email:

chicks@chehalistribe.org

