

We're excited to share that the Chehalis Tribal Loan Fund (CTLF) is expanding!

Thanks to the long history of support and partnership from the Chehalis Tribe, State and local funders, and our community, CTLF is moving into a larger office space designed to serve more local families, Native entrepreneurs, and community members on their journeys toward financial empowerment.

CTLF will be working limited hours until October 10 and will reopen for services at our new location on Tuesday, October 14 at 9:00am.

Our new address is: 214 E Pine Street, Oakville, WA 98568

This new, larger space will allow us to widen our impact and grow our programs, including the upcoming Business Incubator and Homeownership Program, both of which will be launching soon. These initiatives build on CTLF's mission to Pave the way to Financial Empowerment Through Education, Coaching, and Fair Lending.

Every milestone we reach reflects the shared vision of a stronger, more financially confident community. From small business dreams taking root to families achieving homeownership, your continued trust and collaboration make this work possible.

We look forward to welcoming you into our new home soon; and to the many new beginnings it represents.

With gratitude,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Tamra Marlowe De Nova', with a long, horizontal line extending to the right.

Tamra Marlowe De Nova

Executive Director, Chehalis Tribal Loan Fund

