POS System — Let's Talk, Share & Decide

What POS system is right for your business? Join us as we look up and explore popular options together, including Square, Clover, Lightspeed, and more. We'll break down the costs, fees, contracts, and key features side by side so you can understand what equipment and software your business actually needs. Let's find the right fit for the type and size of your business together, and your input will help guide CTLF as we prepare to purchase a system that best serves our community.
